

Curriculum Vitae

Adam Fronczak PhD. Associate professor.

Education

2014 Habilitation, title of the dissertation, Public Health Challenges Regarding Amelioration of Women's Health Behaviour – Strategy Optimization, specialization in the field of Public Health, specialization in the field of clinical pharmacology, specialization in the field of internal diseases.

Career

Head of Laboratory of Public Health, Medical University of Warsaw. Scientific coordinator of the Strategic Program - Prophylaxis and Treatment of Civilization Diseases – Strategmed NCRD in Warsaw. 2007 – 2011 Deputy Minister of Health. Supervision of Department of Science and Higher Education, Department of Drug Policy and Pharmacy, Department of Public Health, Department of International Cooperation. Coordinator of medical cover during Euro 2012. Chair of the Committee for Polish Presidency in the Council of Europe. Cooperation with international organisations including WHO and UNAIDS. Numerous speeches on international meetings and conferences including ONZ, European Parliament, WHO. 2006 – 2012 Director of a hospital - Wojewódzki Szpital Specjalistyczny im. Marii Skłodowskiej-Curie in Zgierz. 2003 – 2007 Secretary of the Supervisory Board of the Scientific-Technological Park in Łódź. 2002 – 2007 Head of Gastroenterology Ward in Wojewódzki Szpital Specjalistyczny im. Marii Skłodowskiej-Curie in Zgierz. 2002 – 2005 Chancellor of Medical University in Łódź. Author and co-author of over 40 publications in Polish and international medical journals.