

prof. dr hab. n zdr. Beata Karakiewicz

midwife and professor/researcher at the Pomeranian Medical University in Szczecin, Poland. The Head of Department of Public Health. Manager of project "Enterprising professional in the Polish system of public health.

She completed training courses and internships in USA, Canada, Coordinator of theoretical and practical training. She is a member of panel of experts, which have been appointment by the Minister of Health for an opinion data on fulfillment by the eligibility criteria to apply for entry on the Minister of Health for conduct specialization or directional internships in the field of public health.

She is expert of technical evaluation of projects financed by the EU under the ROP at the Marshal's Office in West-Pomeranian province. She is also a member of the National Council for Accreditation of Medical Education at the Ministry of Health and a member of the Commission program at the Pomeranian Medical University.

She is project manager of "AGNITIO - an innovative model for the monitoring of graduates carried out in cooperation with industry, medical institutions of self-government"

Earlier she was Chairman of the Board of the Polish Association of Public Health 2010 -2014, and a vice-President of ZG Polish Society of Environmental Medicine 2009-2012

She have been a member of :

- European Public Health Association since 2010,
- Scientific Council for Children of the Copper.
- Scientific Council of the National Institute of Public Health 2011-2014
- Public Health Committee of the Polish Academy of Science from 2011-2014 and 2015-2018,
- National Council for Accreditation of Schools of Nurses and Midwives in the Ministry of Health.