

Professor Mirosław J. Wysocki M.D., Ph D.

Director, National Institute of Public Health (NIH), National Consultant in the area of Public Health Warsaw, Poland

Professor of medicine. Graduated from Warsaw Medical University. In 1971 – 72 WHO Senior Research Fellow in the Department of Epidemiology of NCDs and Social Medicine of St. Thomas’s Hospital Medical School, London, UK. Since 2007 Acting Director and since 2010 until February 2015, again since October 2015 Director of the National Institute of Public Health – NIH, Warsaw.

Specializations in epidemiology, internal medicine and public health. Regional Advisor (P5), Health Situation & Trend Assessment, WHO/SEARO and WHO/HQ Geneva, 1988-2000. In 2006 took part in WHO 2 months “Tsunami Mission” in South-East Asia Region. Coordinator of international epidemiological studies of NCDs (COPDs, diabetes, rheumatic diseases). Author and co-author of some 160 publications and chapters on epidemiology of NCDs and public health. Chaired Senior Level Public Health Group of EC during Polish EU Presidency in 2011.

Represented Poland at WHO WHAs, EBs and Regional Committees. Member of WHO/EURO Standing Committee 2010 - 2013. National Public Health Consultant in 2010-2011 and since October 2014. Member of Independent Expert Group of DG Research and Innovations of EC (2012-2014) on the priority public health research in HORIZON 2020.